Dear Friends,

We're thrilled to present the 2022 Annual Report for the Winters Center for Autism, made possible by your generous contributions, both financially and in various other forms of support. Your dedication as guardians of our mission is deeply appreciated.

Reflecting on the remarkable achievements accumulated during these past few years of service and acknowledging the work that lies ahead, we extend profound gratitude to our supporters. Your positive impact within the Autism community has been deeply felt this past year. Your ongoing support is both appreciated and crucial for our endeavors.

On behalf of the Winters family and the Board of Directors, we express heartfelt thanks and eagerly anticipate your continued commitment to advancing our shared mission.

Warmest regards,
